Alexandria City Tour

Alexandria Day Tours

APERÇU

Our representative will take you and go with him to Qaitbay Citadel, which was built by the Mamluk Sultan Al-Ashraf Abu Al-Nasr Qaitbay to fortify the city of Alexandria and protect it from sea invasions. The castle was built of limestone, with an external wall wrapped around it containing defensive towers. After that, our representative will take you and go with him to the first public government library known in history and it remained the largest libraries of its time. The Library of Alexandria was established by the successors of Alexander the Great, where there are many books in different fields. Then to the cemetery of the people of Al-Shaqafa, which is considered one of the most important cemeteries in the city. The cemetery consists of a series of statues and archaeological remains in Alexandria. After we have lunch, you will go with our representative to your hotel again.
